This list is compiled and maintained by ACMCRN. This is a list of physicians who either treat or are knowledgeable about Arachnoiditis. Please take a moment to read the disclaimer.

DISCLAIMER

ACMCRN acknowledges how hard it is to find an Arachnoiditis friendly specialist across various disciplines globally, so to further our commitment to your access to management and care we have created this list that is populated by Arachnoiditis patients who have submitted their information to our site.

It is important to note that ACMCRN does not have any ownership or direct financial interest in any of the specific doctors or clinics listed on our Arachnoiditis-friendly directory. There are no formal listing criteria, and ACMCRN does not endorse, recommend, or certify any of these physicians.

If you think you have an emergency, call your doctor or emergency services immediately.

ACMCRN does not guarantee or make any warranties, express or implied, as to the quality of medical advice or care given by any listed physician.

The information listed in the results are based solely upon the information given by Arachnoiditis patients.

You're welcome to share individual doctor's names, but please don't share this entire list.

Dr. Brandon Sutton

*Removed from list due to a very bad review, he changed medications without listening to the patient on the second visit and on the third visit he told the patient that he changed his mind on the medications, and told the that he wanted them to get a spinal cord stimulator and even had an Abbot rep at the appointment. To me, that's totally inappropriate and is why I'm removing from the list.

Concierge (cash only) doctor but good MD according to patient who submitted the doctor

Integrated Spine and Pain Services, Falls Church, VA

This clinic received a poor review. She said she waited two months to see them only to be turned away, even though their website mentions arachnoiditis. I highly recommend that you call them beforehand and ask if they treat AA
